

Lecture Series 2022: Laying the Path for Lifelong Wellness

OVERVIEW

This year, the Infant and Early Mental Health Promotion (IEMHP) organization at The Hospital for Sick Children has partnered with the World Association of Infant Mental Health (WAIMH) and Tampere University to develop and offer a unique lecture series on infant and early mental health. This series will offer practitioners around the world the opportunity to hear directly from some of the pioneers and experts of infant and early mental health research and practice. The web-based series will provide insight into the foundational science of infant and early mental health, the importance of promotion and prevention policies and strategies, evidence-based interventions, and treatment approaches. The structure of the series aligns with the Competency Framework developed by IEMHP.

TRAINING DETAILS

- Includes 15 recorded lectures (each approximately 90 minutes to two hours in length) and access to additional resources provided by presenters. Please note new lectures will be uploaded as they are recorded. All 15 Sessions will be available by September 2022. Learners will be receiving an email announcement when a new lecture is uploaded. Learners may choose to complete the Lecture Series as Sessions become available (First lecture will be available on February 22, 2022) or after all 15 Sessions have been uploaded.
- Learners will be eligible for the Certificate of Completion after successfully viewing all 15 lectures and completing the associated feedback surveys
- Learners will have access to 13 Bonus lectures from the 2020/21 Lecture Series (an additional 26 hours of content)
- Access to all lectures ends March 15, 2024

The screenshot shows the 'Create an account' page for the Infant and Early Mental Health Promotion (IEMHP) program, a part of SickKids. The page has a header with the IEMHP and SickKids logos, a search bar, a language dropdown set to 'English', and a 'Log In' button. The main heading is 'Create an account'. Below it, registration instructions state: 'Please enter your first name, last name, e-mail and password. Hit "submit" and you will receive a verification email, with instructions regarding your next registration steps.' A link 'Already have an account? Log in' is provided. The 'Preferences' section includes a 'Language' dropdown set to 'English'. The 'Account Supplementary Info' section lists password requirements: 'The new password must match the following requirements: - password must contain at least 6 characters - password must contain mixed case'. Below this are input fields for 'First Name' and 'Last Name'.

c. Click on the 'Disclaimer', 'Security check', and 'Submit' button to create an account

This screenshot shows the lower portion of the account creation form. It includes fields for 'Password' and 'Confirm Password', both masked with green dots. Below these is a checkbox labeled 'Click on the Disclaimer' which is checked. The text next to the checkbox reads: 'This is a disclaimer that IEMHP may use the anonymized data collected in future publications and presentations to evaluate the efficacy of our training platform. Any personal information that could identify you, such as your name or agency, will NOT be shared.' A 'Security Check' section follows, with an annotation 'Click on the Security check' pointing to a reCAPTCHA box that shows a green checkmark and the text 'I'm not a robot'. At the bottom left, an orange 'Submit' button is highlighted with an annotation 'Click here'.

3. Log in to your account:

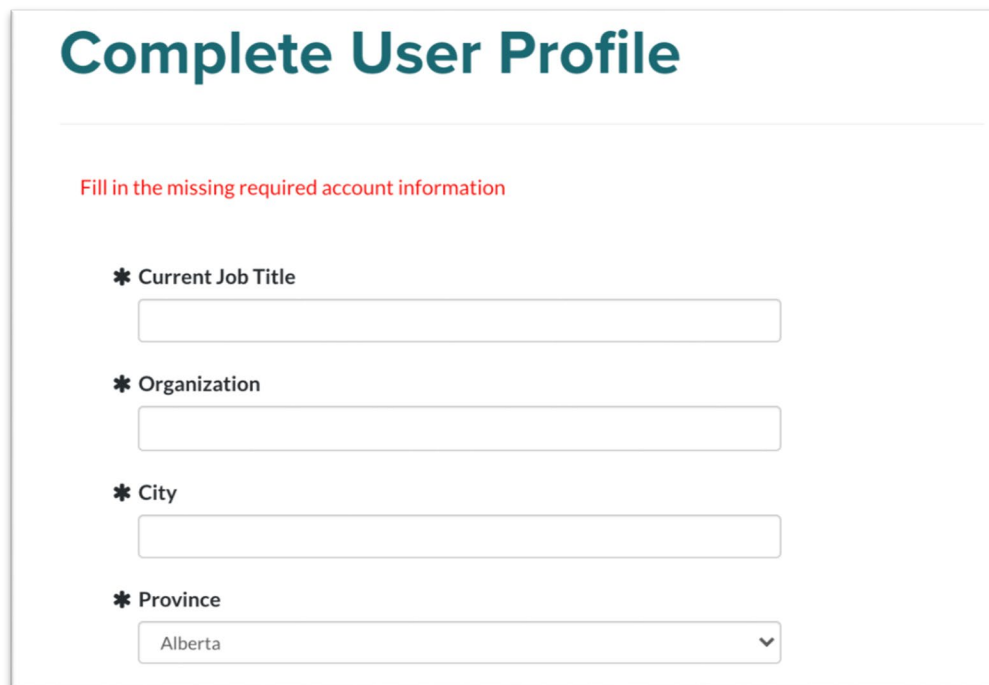

Please log in using your email and password

The screenshot shows the 'Log In' page of the Infant and Early Mental Health Promotion (IEMHP) Training Platform. At the top left is the IEMHP logo, and next to it is the SickKids logo with the text 'A program of'. In the top right corner, there is a language toggle with 'EN' selected and 'FR' as an option. The main heading is 'Log In'. Below it, a welcome message states: 'Welcome to the Infant and Early Mental Health Promotion (IEMHP) Training Platform. IEMHP is a program of the SickKids Learning Institute.' This is followed by the instruction 'Please login or a create an account to continue.' The form has two sections: 'Email' with a text input field containing the placeholder 'enter your email address here', and 'Password' with a text input field containing the placeholder 'enter your password here'. Below the password field is a link 'Create/Update your password'. At the bottom, there is a blue arrow pointing to the 'Log In' button, with the text 'Click on Log In' above it. A 'Register' button is also visible next to the 'Log In' button.

4. Complete User Profile (First Time Login):

- a. Enter your information to complete the User Profile

The screenshot shows the 'Complete User Profile' page. The heading 'Complete User Profile' is at the top. Below it, a red instruction reads 'Fill in the missing required account information'.
